Subject: Some information concerning Mrs. Sophia Schlumberger in Munich

Source of information: Anna Hasenau, Munich
Georg Hasenau, Munich
Personal observation

Mrs. Sophia Schlumberger, German, age 53, lived at 5 Frauenjobstrasse, Munich, on the third floor, is the wife of Wilhelm Schlumberger, German, bandage-maker by occupation, age 55. The Schlumbergers have one 16 year-old son, Hermann, who is an apprentice in a printing shop.

My landlords, the Hasenau, have known the Schlumberger family for more than 25 years. When Mr. Wilhelm Schlumberger was still a bachelor, he had rented a room from Hasenau. In 1934, when he married Sophia, he moved from Herzog-Heinrichstrasse to 5 Frauenjobstrasse, where he obtained an apartment on the third floor. He has lived in these premises continuously since then.

During the last war Wilhelm Schlumberger served in the German army as a medical orderly, not as a combat soldier. He served the whole time in a hospital in Munich.

Mrs. Sophia Schlumberger is a simple woman, without education. She herself comes from Munich and completed the fourth grade of public school.

Wilhelm Schlumberger belongs to the CDU but Mrs. Schlumberger does not belong to any party. During elections, she, like a good Catholic, casts her vote for the CDU. She is not interested in politics. She does not subscribe for, nor read, any newspapers.

Her husband earns good money as a bandage-maker, about 450 marks a month. Besides this, the young son Hermann now earns about 160 marks a month. Mrs. Schlumberger goes three times a week to the Hasenau in order to help them in the cleaning of the apartment. She does this more out of kindness than for the need of money. She always does the cleaning in the presence of Mr. Hasenau. Now and then she also washes the floor in my office but always in my presence.
